Brooklyn College of the City University of New York

Dear Professor Brown:

Your letter of October 10

mk

reached me only today; since my retirement July just I no longer collect my university mail with any regularity.

I should be glad to glance at your paper, but should warn you that I am head over heels in work, getting a critical edition of Plinius's
De Causis Plantarum ready for the printer.

Perhaps you could send me a xerox, and need never be inconvenienced by eventual delays.
I have long regretted not going into the signifi-
